

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2018

Learn Train Recruit Ltd is committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking. Our commitment is expressed through corporate and strategic aims and in formal policies, processes and procedures. We will act ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships, implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place.

We provide services in learning, employability, recruitment and education provision predominately in London and the UK, to and for individuals, families, schools, central and local government, and corporate bodies. We predominantly contract for our business with UK public bodies and legitimate England & Wales registered private businesses, given the nature of our business, our risk of exposure to slavery and trafficking is low; however we will be aware of people, sectors and geographic areas posing a risk and will strive to combat them wherever we deliver our services. We take our social responsibility seriously and will promote best practice and exemplary standards.

The majority of our delivery partners and clients pose a low risk. We expect the highest standards of conduct and probity throughout our service delivery, requiring all of our people to act with integrity and honesty.

We will make sure that all our funders, employees, subcontractors, delivery partners, service users and any other stakeholders have a clear and effective platform for airing concerns, asking questions and whistleblowing, and will ensure reporting processes are clear.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, is approved by the Board and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement until August 15th 2019.
